Ruse Public School is located in Campbelltown in South Western Sydney. The population of the school is 427 students. Sixteen percent of students come from non-English speaking backgrounds and five percent of students from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander backgrounds.

Ruse Public School is committed to continuous improvement and quality service. The school provides a safe and supportive environment where students are nurtured, valued and encouraged to achieve their personal best. Highly qualified, dedicated and caring staff members provide a range of excellent educational programs that meet the academic, cultural, physical, emotional and social needs of students.

A comprehensive curriculum complements our core values and is characterised by a strong focus in literacy, numeracy, technology, sport and the performing arts. Proactive welfare programs provide an inclusive environment and focus on building respect, resilience and social responsibility along with the desire to excel.

Students are celebrated as safe, respectful learners with awards for merit and citizenship. The opportunity for students to have a voice in decision making takes place through our student representative council, which includes students from Year 2 to Year 6. Parents, community members and our local schools play a vital role in the life of the school. These strong partnerships contribute to the outstanding quality of education.
